Blair Academy Student Performed Magical “Metamorphosis”

Evan Paquette starred in “Metamorphosis,” his spectacular new magic show for adults and children (ages five and up), May 16 in Blair Academy’s Dubois Theatre in the Armstrong-Hipkins Center for the Arts. Throughout the show, people vanished, and objects levitated, among other magical feats.

Paquette, a resident of Blairstown and a senior at Blair Academy, has performed magic at birthday parties, dinners, restaurants, festivals and hospitals for the past eight years. He was a member of the Society of Young Magicians and will attend Wagner College in the fall, where he plans to major in musical theatre.
